SCHOLARSHIP

#YouAreWelcomeHere Scholarship Application

The #YouAreWelcomeHere scholarship recognizes international students who have a vision for enhancing intercultural understanding. Participating colleges and universities will each offer two annual, renewable scholarships that cover a minimum of 50% tuition to selected international undergraduates dedicated to furthering the #YouAreWelcomeHere message by bridging intercultural divides. Applicants will answer a short essay question or present a multimedia project about their ideas for applying their leadership skills on their future campuses.

Eligibility Criteria

- Be a first-year international applicant of any major to a participating college or university. An international applicant is an individual who holds citizenship in a country outside the U.S. and who does not also possess U.S. citizenship or permanent residency.
- Demonstrates interest and initiative in leadership and intercultural learning.
- Students must complete a #YouAreWelcomeHere scholarship application for each separate institution by the institutions' deadline.
- Complete a 500-1000-word essay or a two-to-five-minute video* answering the following prompt,
"Tell us about your leadership skills in your school or community, and how you plan to continue applying your leadership skills at the school you are applying to?"

(*Some participating colleges and universities will only accept essays. Check with individual schools for details.)

Application Process

1. Apply for admission at participating colleges/universities of your choice. Please note that admissions processes vary from institution to institution. Please contact your chosen college/university for additional details.
2. Submit the one-page #YouAreWelcomeHere application to your chosen colleges/universities by your institutions' deadline.
